Mobile District seeks comments on administrative record for former Brookley Air Force Base

Mobile, Alabama — The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Mobile District, is conducting a study of the former Brookley Air Force Base located in Mobile County and is providing a copy of the administrative record online for public and agency review and comment.

The Administrative Record contains the studies of the former landfills, maintenance facilities, underground storage tanks, pipelines and fire training facilities at the former air force base. The record contains the results of the soil and groundwater samples taken as part of the investigative process.

A copy of the Administrative Record is available on the Internet at <http://www.sam.usace.army.mil/bar> and at <http://www.mplonline.org/government.htm>. Or the public can call Melissa Shirley at (251) 690-2616 or send her email at Melissa.l.shirley@us.army.mil to arrange to view the file.

All emailed comments must be received by July 25, and all mailed comments must be postmarked no later than 5 p.m. July 25, 2007.

All comments will be part of the public record.
