By a show of hands, how many of you managers were really prepared for your new position on day one? How many of you were prepared for having to deal with such things as emotions, conflicts, and personalities—all while achieving the agency's goals and meeting ever changing deadlines. Not exactly what you had in mind is it?

*I did not sign up for this
Not in my plan, not on my list
Never wanted to be in charge of you
And now my work is never through...*

Fear not Devora Zack has the tools to help you succeed and thrive as a manager. Zack introduces two primary management styles—thinkers and feelers—and guides you in developing a management style that fits who you really are.

Her enlightening examples, helpful exercises, and lifesaving tips make this book the new go-to guide for all those managers looking to love their jobs again.
