

National Kids to Parks Day

www.parktrust.org

Join National Park Trust,
Buddy Bison, and kids
across America for a fun
day of outdoor play!

As Buddy Bison says, “Explore outdoors, the parks are yours!”

What: Chattahoochee Kids to Parks Day!

A nation-wide day of outdoor play to encourage families to explore their neighborhood parks and discover nature.

Who: Kids of all ages

When: Saturday, May 18, 2013

(9am until 1pm EDT, near the tennis courts)

Where: Chattahoochee Park
LAKE SEMINOLE

236 Booster Club Rd, Bainbridge, GA 39817

*Buddy Beaver Fun Run, Games, Prizes, Army Nat'l Guard Rockwall, S & R Helicopter, WGHS Cheer - leaders, Muscogee Indians, Home Depot Kids Unit, Stones Home Centers Kids Planting Unit, Alabama Power Coloring Booth, Decatur Co Sheriff will ID kids, etc. See website: www.kidstoparks.org

Call Park Ranger, Marlene Love-Jones at (229) 662-2001, if you would like to VOLUNTEER.

US Army Corps of Engineers
Mobile District

The National Park Trust is a 501c(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to preserving parks today and creating park stewards for tomorrow. Through kid friendly programming such as National Kids to Parks Day, National Park Trust is engaging and educating kids about the benefits of our parks.

