Welcome to Lake Sidney Lanier. Located just 35 miles northeast of Atlanta, Georgia, the lake offers some of the finest recreational opportunities in the South. Built in the 1950's by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE), this 39,000 acre lake has over 692 miles of shoreline. USACE operates 40 park areas around the lake for camping and day use activities.

Day Use Park Information

The USACE operates 33 day use parks at Lake Lanier. Facilities range from parks with boat ramps to those with designated swimming areas, picnic tables, shelters and playgrounds. All day use parks close daily at 10:00 PM from April 1st – September 29th, 2018. (See website for more details on hours of operation.) Boat launching is allowed at all hours unless otherwise posted. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited in all parks.

- Laurel Ridge Trail -

The Laurel Ridge Trail is approximately 4.0 miles in length and provides spectacular views of Buford Dam, Lake Lanier and the Chattahoochee River. It can be accessed from Lower Overlook, Upper Overlook, Lower Pool East, or Buford Dam Park. Numbered posts along the trail indicate points of interest and are described by a brochure available from the Lake Visitor Center and at the trailhead in Lower Overlook Park. Please see park hours under Day Use Park Information.

Camping Information

USACE operates 7 campgrounds (see map) on the lake. Camping enthusiasts may enjoy the luxuries of fully developed areas with water and electric hookups or "roughing it" at pack-in primitive sites. Most campgrounds have park attendants on duty to assist our visitors. Camping in undesignated areas such as on the lake's shoreline and islands is prohibited.

- Rules and Regulations

Registration: All campers and their visitors must register at the park's entry station
