

SURVEY BOAT PC-3

The Survey Boat PC-3, a fiberglass, twin outboard survey boat, is assigned to the Panama City Site Office. Its mission is to conduct hydrographic survey and channel examinations in the Apalachicola, Chattahoochee and Flint River systems, GIWW, and the Coastal Projects.

TYPE:	Fiberglass construction, survey boat, twin outboard powered
BUILT:	1993 by Boston Whaler
LENGTH:	26'-9"
BEAM:	7'-6"
DISPLACEMENT:	10,000 lbs
GENERATORS:	Onan 7KW
PROPULSION:	(2) 200 HP outboard
SURVEY EQUIPMENT:	Trimble differential GPS, Racal differential GPS, Odom Echotrac Sounding, Furuno RADAR, air conditioned wheel house.