Army Corps and SAME participates in the Cancer Society's Chili Cook off

MOBILE, Ala- Three Mobile District Corps members will be participating with the Mobile Post Society of American Military Engineers (SAME) in preparing the famous 'Off the Grid Chili' for this year's American Cancer Society's Chili-Cook-off. The event will be held Saturday, February 12, in Bienville Square in downtown Mobile.

This is the second year the SAME Mobile post will be part of over 130 teams competing for the Judges favors and contribute money to benefit the American Cancer Society's educational programs that teach the importance of early detection and prevention; patient services such as transportation, prosthetics, counseling; and lifesaving research (acs.org).
